

Network Ten appoints Royce Zygarlicki as Adelaide Sales Manager

7 March 2011

Network Ten today announced the appointment of Royce Zygarlicki as Adelaide Sales Manager.

Mr Zygarlicki, currently Group Sales Manager based in Melbourne, commences in his role on 28 March and will report directly to Network Ten's National Sales Manager Kylie Rogers.

Mr Zygarlicki joined Network Ten in 2003, and was promoted to Group Sales Manager in 2005. Previously, he spent eight years at WIN Television working in a range of sales and management roles.

Announcing the appointment, Ms Rogers said: "Royce is an experienced sales executive with extensive knowledge of the media business gained over 18 years in metropolitan and regional television, as well as in radio."

"Royce has forged highly effective working relationships with key agencies and clients and, in combination with his deep industry knowledge and strong leadership capabilities, that means he will be a real asset for Network Ten in the Adelaide market," Ms Rogers said.

Mr Zygarlicki said: "My family and I are excited about the move to Adelaide. I'm looking forward to building our business and delivering for our clients in the Adelaide market."
